Beautiful in the extreme were the details carried out last evening at the Country club in connection with the delightful dancing party given by Mr. and Mrs. F. E. McGurrian in compliment to their charming niece, Miss Margaret Bache, of Los Angeles. Miss Bache was assisted in receiving a large number of guests by her cousin, Miss Jane Darling, in the main rooms, where dancing was enjoyed.

Masses of golden glow formed effective decorations, the gorgeous flowers being banked high on the mantels and in the grates and in tall jardiniere in the corners of the rooms. The electric lights were shaded by Japanese lanterns in soft yellows, and strings of the lanterns lighted the verandas and lawns. Punch was served under an immense Japanese umbrella on the lawn, where rugs, couches and chairs were arranged with picturesque effect.

In the dining room a particularly artistic scene was presented. A large oval mirror fringed with ferns and sweet clematis occupied the center of the long table, on the surface of which were little swans filled with clusters of pansies. Small potted palms, standing on mirrors, dotted the table, the whole effect being that of a miniature forest with a lake in the center. Pansies were used in profusion, and the pansy colors in yellow, purple, browns and green, were harmoniously carried throughout the decorations. The programs, which bore the monogram of the young hostess, contained eighteen dances with the usual number of extras.

Donaldson's stringed orchestra furnished the music of the evening. Nearly one hundred young people were present to enjoy the pleasures afforded.

The center of attraction last evening for automobile parties was Liberty park, where hundreds of interested spectators were in attendance at the official ceremonies in connection with the opening of the children's playgrounds. An excellent musical program was enjoyed.

Miss Jennie Darling, who is spending the summer in Brighton at the cottage of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Darling, came down from the mountain resort for the dance last evening at the Country club, and is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. F. E. McGurrian, at the Bransford.

The regimental bridge club at Fort Douglas will meet Saturday evening with Mrs. Hugh L. Walthall at the quarters of Lieutenant Walthall, in officers' row.

Former Governor and Mrs. John C. Cutler, with Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Cutler and daughter, will leave Saturday evening for a two weeks' trip through Yellowstone park.

Word has been received in the city from Mrs. William Igleheart from Madison, Wis., where she has been taking a summer's course of study in the University of Wisconsin, to the effect that she has finished her studies and will leave for Kentucky to visit with relatives, expecting to return to Salt Lake by the first of September.

Mrs. Ira D. Wines and daughter, Miss Adelaide Elmore, have returned from Brighton, where the former chaperoned a party of sorority girls at the Croxall cottage, known as "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

Among the guests in Ogden canyon are Mr. and Mrs. E. Milbank of Albany, N. Y., Mrs. J. F. Battle of Salt Lake, Miss Daisy Carroll and Dr. T. Carroll of New York. The party will leave in a few days for Yellowstone park.

Miss Isabel Osborne has been spending the week in Provo canyon with a party of friends.

Mrs. D. F. Sherrer and son of Seattle are expected in the city Saturday to visit at the home of Mrs. Shearer's daughter, Mrs. Rufus Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. James left last evening for an extended eastern trip. They will first visit with relatives in Milwaukee and Detroit, going later to New York and other Atlantic coast cities.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Breeden will have for their guests this week Miss Raye Dwyer of Indianapolis, who is a cousin of Mr. Breeden.

Miss Marion Thompson, Ruth and Orpha Kingsbury and Mildred Ferguson are being entertained at a house

DANDRUFF CAN BE EASILY CURED

In fact Schramm-Johnson, Druggs, the druggists, have a wonderfully efficient hair restorer called Parisian Sage, which costs only 50 cents a bottle, that is guaranteed to cure dandruff in two weeks or money back.

Parisian Sage is the discovery of one of the world's greatest scientists, who, knowing the value of Sage as a scalp cleanser and hair restorer, combined it with other ingredients in proper proportions, and the result is the most wonderful hair tonic.

Parisian Sage is a most pleasant, daintily perfumed hair dressing, and besides curing dandruff your druggist will return your money if it fails to stop falling hair or itching of the scalp.

It will make hair grow, and women who desire soft, beautiful and luxuriant hair can have it in two weeks by using this famous, quick acting preparation. Schramm-Johnson, Druggs, sell it under a guarantee. You take no risk.
